7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 BORNSTEIN SEAFOODS, INC.,

CASE NO. C21-0022JLR

11 Plaintiff,

ORDER

12 v.

13 CITY OF BELLINGHAM, et al.,

14 Defendants.

15 Before the court is the parties' stipulated motion to continue the bench trial in this 16 matter, which is currently set for February 6, 2023. (Stip. (Dkt. # 81); see Sched. Ord.
17 (Dkt. # 26).) The parties jointly represent that they have been engaged in "serious, good 18 faith negotiations" and that they "believe they have reached an agreement to settle this 19 case." (Stip. at 2.) Because Defendants the City of Bellingham and the Port of 20 Bellingham are municipal entities, however, any settlement agreement must be approved 21 at public meetings. (Id.) To accommodate this process, which the parties anticipate will 22 be lengthy, the parties ask the court to continue the trial date and remaining pretrial

1 deadlines until a date no earlier than October 2, 2023. (Id.) The parties also ask the court
2 to extend the discovery deadline, which expired on October 11, 2022, to permit “limited 3 additional discovery.” (Id.; see Sched. Ord.) They do not, however, specify what 4 additional discovery they seek or why that discovery is necessary, nor do they propose a 5 new discovery deadline. (See Stip. at 2.)

6 The court issues scheduling orders setting trial and related dates to provide a 7 reasonable schedule for the resolution of disputes. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil 8 Procedure 16(b)(4), “[a] schedule may only be modified for good cause and with the 9 judge’s consent.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4). Finding good cause, the court GRANTS the 10 parties’ request to continue the trial date and unexpired pretrial deadlines (Dkt. # 81) and 11 resets the parties’ bench trial on October 30, 2023. The court DIRECTS the Clerk to 12 issue a revised case schedule that resets the unexpired pretrial deadlines based on that 13 new trial date. Because the parties represent that they have reached an agreement to 14 settle this case, the court further DIRECTS the Clerk to remove Plaintiff Bornstein
15 Seafoods, Inc.’s (“Bornstein”) motions for partial summary judgment (Dkt. ## 54, 56)
16 from the court’s motions calendar, without prejudice to Bornstein renewing its motions
17 no later than July 13, 2023, if the parties are unable to perfect their settlement.

18 Because the parties have not explained why they need an extension of the 19 discovery deadline, however, the court finds they have not established good cause to 20 extend that deadline. Therefore, the court DENIES the parties’ request to extend the 21 discovery deadline at this time, without prejudice to the parties filing a motion or 22 stipulation that explains their reasons for requesting that extension.
